

2010 Report to the Northwestern Minnesota Synod

Thank you for your support!

Prayers

Please continue to pray for our students, faculty and staff.

Students

Luther Seminary welcomes 30 students from the Northwestern Minnesota Synod.

Thank you for sending these future leaders.

Teaching

As of January 2010, six of our students are serving as interns in your synod.

Thank you for teaching and supporting them.

Volunteers

Volunteers from the Northwestern Minnesota Synod include Don Bottemiller and Paul Dovre on the Board of Directors; Paul Dovre on the Board of Trustees; Grant Aaseng, Tim Megordon, Jill Steichen and Kathy Valan on the Alumni Council.

Financial Support

During the fiscal year 2008-09, the Northwestern Minnesota Synod provided direct financial support of $102,961.

(Please note that your synod's fiscal year may differ from that of the seminary.)

Synodical and churchwide support account for 10 percent of Luther Seminary's budget.

Luther Seminary educates leaders for Christian communities called and sent by the Holy Spirit to witness salvation through Jesus Christ and to serve in God's world.

Faithful

- Centered and energized by the gospel of Jesus Christ.
- Seeking to discern God's will for us in all we do.

Engaging

- Theologically, ecumenically and culturally diverse.
- Engaging heart, mind and spirit in theological learning.

Innovative

- Programs to meet the needs of the 21st century church.
- Using cutting edge technology to extend theological education globally.

Missional

- Deep theological and biblical understanding of mission.
- Sharing the gospel in a world of many cultures and religions.

Expansive

- Breadth and depth of faculty and programs.
- Rich variety of cross-cultural and contextual opportunities.
- Global impact.

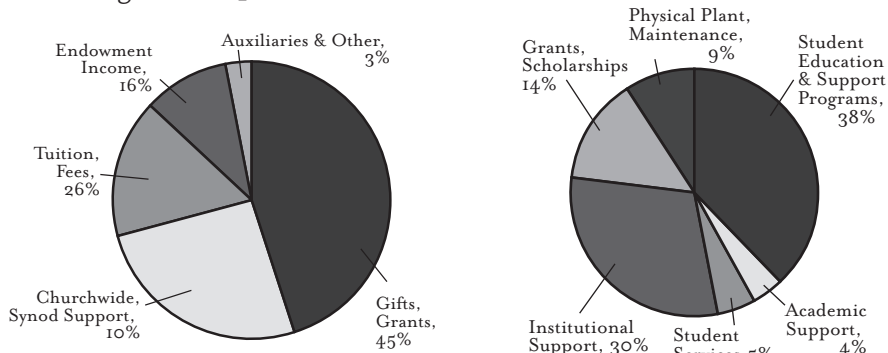

Our Gift to You

In August, Luther Seminary launched Enter the Bible, a free, comprehensive and authoritative resource from Luther Seminary faculty with summaries, outlines and background on every book of the Bible. We hope you and others in your congregation are able to use this high-quality resource in your Bible study.
